CONDITIONS

CUSTOMS DUTY – A 10% deposit of the value of the goods is taken to cover potential custom duty. Please give a current assessment of value. Russian Customs do have a sophisticated database of goods with values and severe financial penalties are incurred on undervalued goods. The 10% is returned in 3 weeks should Customs deem that no duties are necessary.

INSURANCE – The Russia House does not insure consignments or have an overall cover on this service. Consignees should ensure that their consignments have adequate cover.

PACKAGING – Consignees should ensure that their consignments are adequately packed for safe transit. If The Russia House has to re-pack or secure goods an appropriate charge will be made for material and labour.

The Russia House cannot hold itself responsible for damage or lost goods through transit or goods confiscated or withheld by Customs.

The Russia House cannot hold itself responsible for money lost in transit through theft or confiscation.
